

TEACHERS CODE OF CONDUCT – BUS SAFETY

Teachers have specific responsibilities when it comes to ensuring the safety, well-being, and discipline of students while on a school bus. Here are some of the duties of teachers on the school buses:

Supervising Students: The primary responsibility of teachers on the school bus is to supervise students during the journey. This includes ensuring that students are seated properly, following safety rules, and behaving appropriately.

Safety and Emergency Procedures: Teachers should familiarize themselves with the school bus safety and emergency procedures. They must intimate the school authorities of any emergencies that may arise during the journey, such as accidents, medical emergencies or disruptive behavior.

Maintaining Order: Teachers are responsible for maintaining order and discipline on the bus. They should intervene and /or report to the school authorities if students are

- Misbehaving
- Being disruptive,
- Not following the rules.
- Using inappropriate language

This includes documenting behavior problems, safety issues, or other relevant information for follow-up action.

Assisting Students: Teachers may need to assist students with special needs, such as helping them board or exit the bus safely, ensuring they are seated comfortably, and providing any necessary support during the journey.

Communication: Teachers should communicate effectively with students to ensure a smooth and safe transportation experience. This includes providing instructions, sharing important information, and addressing any concerns or issues that may arise.

Promoting Positive Behavior: Teachers play a role in promoting positive behavior and encouraging a respectful and cooperative environment among students on the bus. This can involve reinforcing expectations, acknowledging good behavior and modeling appropriate conduct.

Emergency Preparedness: Teachers should be prepared for various emergency scenarios, such as first aid situations, or unexpected delays. They should know how to respond quickly and effectively to ensure the safety of all students on board.

I acknowledge that I have read the code of conduct hereby undertake and agree to abide by the code of conduct in the Bus regarding student safety and behavior. I will diligently fulfill all the obligations outlined in this undertaking.
